Numb. 4851

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, May 8. 1717.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Bradford, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Salop.

To the King's moſt excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the County of Salop, the 28th Day of March, in the Third Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

WE beg Leave, moſt heartily to congratulate your Majeſty's ſafe Return into theſe your Dominions, and to acknowledge the juſt Sence we have of the prudent Adminiſtration of his Royal Highneſs, under your Majeſty, during your Abſence.

It is with the greateſt Joy and Satisfaction, that we ſee your Majeſty's Endeavours for the good of your People effectual, Alliances concluded, that give a Proſpect of an undiſturb'd Succeſſion, and a flouriſhing Trade, and the Honour of the Britiſh Nation retriev'd by your Majeſty's Reputation and Wiſdom.

We cannot too much admire your Vigilance in diſcovering the deſperate Attempts of a Faction, who rather than not diſturb your Government, would ſacrifice not only their Country, but even their own Creature to a raſh and deſperate Prince.

Our Principles and Intereſt oblige us to exert our ſelves to the utmoſt in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, againſt all your Domeſtick and Foreign Enemies; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will unite as one Man, with our Lives and Fortunes, in your Majeſty's and our Country's Service.

London, May 8.

Yeſterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

From the Hague Courant, dated May 14.

Stockholm, March 31. The Engliſh Reſident Mr. Jackſon, is not only with all his Servants, arreſted, and a Guard put upon his Houſe, but 'tis alſo forbidden that he ſend or receive any Letters: But the Dutch Reſident is only forbid the Court. Great Diligence is uſed to endeavour to bring the Fleet to Sea out of Carelſcroon, and the Squadron that is here, will join it as ſoon as it can be got ready. The Prince of Heſſe Caſſel is ſtill with the King at Lund, where his Majeſty frequently holds Councils of War with his Generals and Miniſters.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated May 13 and 15.

Vienna, April 28. Before the Emperor went to Laxemburg, he took Prince Eugene into his Cloſet, and told him, he ſhould put a Generaliſſimo over him, whom he muſt be obedient to, and doubted not of his ready Compliance; and when the Prince calmly ask'd him who that was, the Emperor gave him a Crucifix richly beſet with Diamonds, with this Inſcription, Jeſus Chriſtus Generaliſſimus. The Prince received it with great Reſpect and Expreſſions of Gratitude, promiſing his Majeſty that he would place it in his Camp Chapel.

Vienna, May 1. The Report that the Lieutenant-Colonel of the Schonborn Regiment Petraſch was dead of his Wounds at Belgrade proves to be falſe, for his Wife has received a Letter from him, adviſing her that he was Priſoner there, and well us'd by the Turks, but that they were reſolv'd to ſend him to Conſtantinople to be kept in the ſeven Towers. 'Tis alſo now known that General Viard is not dead as was reported. We hear that 18000 Turks are upon the March to fall upon our Troops that lie before Orſova. The Empreſs Dowager Eleona having caus'd two rich Flags to be made for the Admiral's and Vice-Admiral's Ships, which are ſo much adorn'd with Gold and fine Embroidery Work, as to have coſt 6000 Florins; they were Yeſterday ſolemnly bleſſed by our Biſhop in St. Stephen's Church, with Muſick, Drums and Trumpets; and afterwards carried in State through the City, accompanied by the Militia and all the Sea-Officers, among whom march'd Admiral Anderſon himſelf, down to the Danube, where they were carried on board the Ships, and hoiſted on the Mainmaſts, the Cannon firing all round. And theſe Ships will ſail to Hungary with the firſt high Water. The preciſe Time of Prince Eugene's Departure cannot yet be ſet, for as he intends to carry with him two Millions and half of Florins in Money, the making up that Sum cannot be fix'd to a Day. In the mean time, the Field Chancery is already gone for Hungary, and the Auditor at War will follow next Week. And Yeſterday both the Princes of Saxe-Saklefeldt, and ſeveral of Prince Eugene's Attendants ſet out for that Kingdom. The Turks continue to make ſtrong Retrenchments between the Save and the Danube.

Berlin, May 8. It is now publickly known, that the King will ſhortly make a Tour to Paris. The Queen finds her ſelf very well in her Lying in. The young Prince was Baptized laſt Wedneſday, and named Lewis-Charles, the Margrave Philip held him to the Font, while the Margrave Albrecht repreſenting the King of France, and the Margravin for the Dutcheſs of Saxe-Zeits ſtood God-father and God-mother. The King afterwards went to Potſdam, from whence he will paſs to Brandenburg, to make a Review of the Regiments that are come out of Garriſon there. We hear from Mecklemburg, that General Weyde has received Orders to depart with moſt of his Troops to Poland, by the End of this Month.

Mecklemburg, May 9. Two principal Officers of the Czar's are come hither, who have brought the laſt Orders to General Weyde to depart.

Hamburgh, May 11. The Daniſh Letters that ſhould have come in To-night, are not yet arrived.

Hague, May 12. Yeſterday News arrived here that the young Infanto Don Franciſco was dead, being ſeiz'd with Convulſions, which carried him off in a ſhort time: Whereupon the Marquis Beretti Landi Ambaſſadour of Spain, has put off the Entertainments of Balls and Feaſting, which he intended to have held on the Monday and Tueſday of Whitſontide, and 'tis ſuppos'd his Excellency will put himſelf in Mourning. The States of Holland and Weſt-Frieſland are to aſſemble the 19th Inſtant, the Letters of Summons being accordingly ſent to the reſpective Cities.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated May 15.

Hague, May 13. According to the common Report, the Czar of Ruſſia will come hither after he has viſited France, and that her Majeſty his Conſort will tarry here the mean time. The Ruſſian Chancellor is expected here from Amſterdam in a few Days. This Morning the Secretary of the Ruſſian Ambaſſy was with ſome of the Foreign Miniſters that are here. M. Smidtman Miniſter of the Elector Palatine, is about to ſet out this Day for the Britiſh Court, where he goes to reſide.

London, May 8.

Yeſterday South-Sea Stock was 105 1 qr. to 105. Bank 135 1 qr. to 135. India 177 1 half, 177, to 177 1 qr. African 21.

In Yeſterday's Courant, in the Addreſs, pag. 1. col. 1, line 30, for Admiration, read Adminiſtration.
